WILLIAM D. GRAF ESSAY PRIZE

The William D. Graf Prize is awarded by the Centre each year for the best graduate essay in German and European Studies submitted by a student enrolled in the Graduate Diploma Program at York University. The Prize honours the memory of Professor Graf, a political scientist at the University of Guelph who was a member of the 1996 Bi-National Committee of Experts to select a Canadian Centre of Excellence in the field of German and European Studies. In addition to a monetary award, students receiving the Prize will have their essay published in the Working Papers Series of The Canadian Centre for German and European Studies.

Students enrolled in the Graduate Diploma program are eligible to apply for this award.
